

The Oak River Farms Scholarship is designed to further our commitment to agriculture and the well-being of rural communities. The scholarship is open to immediate family members of our eligible employees and tenants. In reviewing candidate qualifications, preference will be given to those students pursuing a degree in an agricultural or environmental related field and/or those who can demonstrate how they will use their education for the societal, environmental, health, or economic benefit of rural communities. Scholarship amounts will be for $1,000 per academic year and are renewable annually for up to four years, subject to student achievement and the discretion of Oak River Farms. Previous recipients will hear from Leslie Caenen directly.

Applications and reference letters should be submitted electronically to Leslie Caenen no later than June 1, 2024, at scholarship@oakriverfarms.com.
